

HOMEcoming

THE MOTHERLAND

Within the character story, Kairo travels to an unnamed country in Africa. His precise ancestral nation remains unknown and is intentionally not assigned without future direction from the artist's creator.

He thinks he is visiting, but spiritually begins to feel that he is returning. Encounters with people, elders and living traditions deepen his understanding of belonging without pretending that one journey can restore every lost detail.