

THE AWAKENING

BREAKING THE SPELL

Within Kairo's artistic mythology, Leviathan represents a system of conditioning that separates people from history, ancestry, spiritual awareness, one another and their own potential.

The music treats awakening as the work of questioning what was learned, studying what was hidden or neglected, and choosing a more conscious relationship with identity. This is a fictional artistic framework, not an objective historical claim.